Chamber Member Survey Indicates Local Businesses Offer Generous Employee Benefits

Health care most popular; at least 25% of those surveyed also offer retirement plan, 401K, personal performance bonus and life insurance

Glenwood Springs, CO..... A recent chamber member survey revealed that 74% of those responding offer health care, health savings accounts and/or a cafeteria plan to their employees. At least twenty-five percent of those surveyed also offer a retirement plan, 401K, personal performance bonus and life insurance. Other benefits offered include profit sharing or an annualized incentive program, long-term disability, college assistance, maternity/paternity leave, military leave, non-profit donation matching, ski passes, wellness benefits, and RFTA passes. The chamber issued the survey to understand what benefits businesses offer employees in an effort to help members make business decisions.

Of the 65 responding to the survey: 74% offer health care, health savings accounts (HSAs) and/or a cafeteria plan; 37% offer a 401K; 34% offer personal performance bonuses; 30% offer life insurance; 29% offer a retirement plan; 23% offer maternity/paternity leave; 20% offer long-term disability; 20% offer a wellness benefit; 15% offer profit sharing or an annualized incentive program; 15% offer ski passes; 12% offer military leave; 11% offer college assistance; 11% offer non-profit donation matching ranging from 1 to 100% match; and 2% offer a RFTA pass. Of those surveyed, 78 % offer other benefits. For complete results visit glenwoodchamber.com/Chamber-of-Commerce/Survey-Results.
